Hi ,

This week we need your help to raise awareness. To be more specific, there are two animal days this month that we need you to help us spread the word about! August plays host to both World Elephant Day and World Lion Day, and we have two very interesting articles for you to read. The animals can't do it on their own, so let's all join together to help!

Also included in this weeks newsletter is an introduction to the young orangutan Harriet who was rescued by BOS F and brought into the sanctuary. Read her story today and learn a little more!

World Lion Day 2016 - Only 20,000 Lions Remaining!

World Lion Day falls on the 10th August and with each passing year the day is becoming more and more necessary. It is now estimated that there are only around 20,000 lions remaining in the wild, so if things don't change soon it could spell the end for this majestic big cat.

World Elephant Day 2016 - 100 Killed Per Day.

August may be a busy month for animal news but there is still time to take a look at the world's elephants. These giants are being killed at an astonishing rate for their ivory, and World Elephant Day hopes to raise awareness of this and bring the trade to an end.
